

How many have you read?

A * symbol indicates titles that are more suitable for older readers and books with themes that may need to be introduced with caution!

#ReadForEmpathy

For young people aged 12-16

	Choose Love Nicola Davies & Petr Horáček		Oxygen Mask Jason Reynolds Art by Jason Griffin		Away With Words Sophie Cameron		Wild Song Candy Gourlay		The First Move Jenny Ireland
	You Are Not Alone Shauna Darling Robertson		You Think You Know Me* Ayaan Mohamud		SOLD: What Will It Take to Find Freedom?* Sue Barrow		Kicked Out A.M. Dassu		The Piano at the Station Helen Rutter Illustrator Elisa Paganelli
	Stand Up Ferran Burke Steven Camden		Promise Boys* Nick Brooks		Sing If You Can't Dance Alexia Casale		The Climbers Keith Gray		All the Pieces of Me Libby Scott & Rebecca Westcott
	Crossing the Line* Tia Fisher		Swimming on the Moon Brian Conaghan		What the World Doesn't See Mel Darbon		Hazel Hill is Gonna Win This One Maggie Horne		Different For Boys* Patrick Ness Illustrator Tea Bendix
	Global Eoin Colfer & Andrew Donkin Illustrator Giovanni Rigano		Safiyyah's War Hiba Noor Khan		One More Mountain Deborah Ellis		Boy Like Me Simon James Green		Quiet Storm Kimberly Whittam