Particular area(s) of Expertise/Strength	Geography, Assistant Curriculum Leader of a Humanities Faculty that includes History and Travel and Tourism as well as Geography, improving teaching and learning of Humanities across primary and secondary key stages.
How have you/your school previously supported another school?	Yes – I have worked with two secondary schools based in Liverpool with their delivery of the new Geography curriculum, one at KS4 and one at KS5. I have also worked with a number of primary schools with the aim of improving the delivery of Humanities subjects at KS 1-2 and subsequently improve delivery and progress at KS3+.
What was the specific impact of your support?	Improvement in the quality and quantity of Humanities teaching in a number of our feeder primary schools that is evidenced upon arrival in Year 7. Improvement in the quality of teaching and learning and therefore pupil engagement and progress. Improved delivery of and successful completion of KS4 compulsory physical Geography field work. Improved A Level and GCSE results within my own faculty relating to improvements in T&amp;L – improved ALPS from blue into the black and GCSE results to +0.30 for our faculty in 2017.
