Reports to: Subject Leader for Science
Start Date: Easter 2024 [or sooner if required]
Salary: MPS/UPS

The Governors of this highly successful 11-18 Girls' Catholic Specialist Arts College wish to appoint a well-qualified and dynamic teacher to contribute to the Science department of the College, which is a National Teaching School. This post is suitable for NQT's or more experienced practitioners.

The successful candidate will need to be:

- An excellent practitioner
- Able to model effective teaching and learning strategies
- Ambitious in raising attainment across all key stages
- Able to motivate and inspire students
- Able to demonstrate high quality organisational skills
- Able to make a positive contribution in the Science department

In return we offer:

- A 'Good' school [Ofsted, November 2016]
- The opportunity to work in a key department in a highly successful school
- An established and supportive department on the cutting edge of advances in pedagogy and practice
- The latest technology to support highly effective teaching and learning
- Vast support and opportunities for professional development

The successful candidate will be required to teach across the age and ability range.

As part of the shortlisting, we will carry out an online search as part of due diligence on the shortlisted candidates. This may help identify any incidents or issues that have happened, and are publicly available online, which the college might want to explore with the applicant at interview.

Our school is committed to safeguarding children and has safer recruitment procedures in keeping with DFE statutory guidance. All posts are subject to all the required DFE pre-employment checks being completed including an Enhanced DBS Certificate [including a Children's Barred List Check]. Our recruitment pack contains key safeguarding policies including our code of conduct for staff and volunteers which everyone must adhere to.

Applications should be completed on the CES application form together with the Recruitment Monitoring Form and returned to Mrs Waters, Executive Assistant to the Headteacher: watersc@stjohnbosco.org.uk or sent by post to the college.

Please note that only applicants who have been shortlisted for posts will be contacted following the closing date.

Please contact the College or visit the website to request further details and an application form.

Closing Date: 12 noon Friday, 2nd February 2024
